CALL FOR ART SUBMISSIONS 2020

The Gibsons Public Market invites artists to submit exhibition proposals of two dimensional works to hang at the Public Market.

The deadline for submissions is January 31 2020

- The jury is composed of an artist, a community member and a GPM Board member. All exhibition decisions are unanimous.
- Artists will be notified by phone or email of the completion of the jury's process. No telephone calls please.
- The installations accepted will be scheduled to hang between February – December 2020
- Each exhibition will be for a term of 6-8 weeks.
- Accepted proposals will be kept on file for reference until after the scheduled exhibition.
- Declined entries will be returned in the artists self-addressed and stamped package or by pick up
- One feature artist and a variety of other artists works will be scheduled concurrently for each time slot during this 10 month period.*

PRESENTATION OF THE PROPOSAL

The artist will provide the following:

- Digital collection of press quality submitted works on 3 data sticks for committee
- A list of works (form on Page 3 of this document)
- A CV including an exhibition record and short biography
- An artist statement (max 50 words)
- A self-addressed stamped package suitable for mailing or by pickup (to return the materials after jurying)
